

4TH ANNUAL 4W SUMMIT ON WOMEN, GENDER, AND WELLBEING AND 42ND WISCONSIN WOMEN AND GENDER STUDIES CONFERENCE

University of Wisconsin Law School

UW-Madison Image Collection S05714

Photo by Jeff Miller/UW-Madison Archives

Photo by Jeff Miller/UW-Madison

Transformative Education: Then. When? Now!

APRIL 11-13, 2019
PYLE CENTER, MADISON, WI

Photo by Antonia Zennaro
DR. BRIGITTE BAPTISTE
Director, Humboldt Institute of Biological Resources
Thursday, April 11, 4 p.m.
Alumni Lounge, Pyle Center

Photo by Joerg Metzner
DR. ROSALYN LAPIER
Associate Professor of Environmental Studies, University of Montana
Friday, April 12, 10:30 A.M.
Great Hall, Memorial Union

Linda Fittante/NPR
CARRIE JOHNSON
Justice Correspondent for the Washington Desk at NPR
Friday, April 12, 4:00 P.M.-5:30 P.M.
Alumni Lounge, Pyle Center

Also featuring The African American Women's Health Network and Social Transformations to End Exploitation & Trafficking for Sex (STREETS)

All talks are free and open to the public but require advance registration on the conference website.

The 4W Summit co-convenors and sponsors are honored to be holding this conference under the auspices of the UNESCO Chair on Gender, Wellbeing, and a Culture of Peace as part of a global United Nations Platform on education, science, and culture.